HIGHER CERTIFICATE IN INTERIOR DECORATING

INSCAPE

COURSE INTRODUCTION

The Higher Certificate in Interior Decorating educates students on how to enhance interior spaces. Students develop design skills in order to create functional and meaningful environments. Students apply interior decorating, design, technology and materials knowledge to develop innovative design solutions. This programme teaches students how to design captivating spaces with a client's personal style in mind. The Higher Certificate equips graduates with practical knowledge and skills for entry into the job market, with an emphasis on work-integrated learning to prepare them for the professional world.

The certificate can be completed as a one year full-time contact programme or two years part-time through distance learning. Graduates may progress to a Degree or Diploma in Interior Design or another relevant design field. Students pursuing further education must meet institutional entrance requirements.

COURSE OVERVIEW

- The programme focuses on developing essential technical drawings, fundamental theory of interior decorating and the processes of interior decorating.
- Students learn business basics, such as project management and professional practice management for interior decorators, as well as how to start a business.
- In the programme students learn about spatial design, materials and finishes, visual merchandising and colour theory.
